

I am strongly opposed to the expansion of CALEA to eavesdropping over the Internet. The government has a history of using such powers to curtail lawful dissent-- the scandalous FBI "COINTELPRO" programs of years past are a prime example of how eavesdropping powers can and will be abused. This is a curtailment of our basic American liberties and it is unjustifiable.